Teaching and  Learning

Today was NSPCC Number Day which is an inclusive maths-inspired fundraising day. The children have come to school dressed in digits or TTRS/Numbots inspired outfits to celebrate all things Mathematical. During the day children have been immersed in Maths and taken inspiration from famous game shows, current trends, exciting tasks, and teamwork.

On Thursday 6th March we will be celebrating World Book Day.

This year we will be going back to the tradition of coming to school dressed as your favourite book character on this day.

Get creative and make a costume or check out the dressing up box for something that fits this theme.

If you love reading and can't identify one favourite you can come to school in your pyjamas ready to share a bedtime story.

The day will be filled with lots of activities to celebrate all things book related and promote our love of reading.

Thank you for your support.

MIND WHAT EXERCISE
IS TO THE BODY.
