

Developmental Paediatrics (Community Paediatrics)

What kind of services can I access from my community paediatrician?

- Children with developmental delay.
- Children with social and communication difficulties.
- Children with complex medical needs.
- Enuretic service.
- Audiology service.
- ADHD assessment, treatment and monitoring.
- Child protection service covering physical, sexual and emotional abuse.
- Behaviour problems for the under 5s.
- Liaison with other professionals caring for the child.

How old does my child need to be to visit a community paediatrician?

Your child needs to be aged 0-16yrs.

Who to contact

E-mail

refertoalderhey@nhs.net

Website

<https://www.alderhey.nhs.uk/.../developmental-paediatrics>

Where to go

Name

Alder Hey Children's Hospital

Address

Eaton Road
Liverpool

Postcode

L12 2AP

Notes

The Developmental Paediatrics team is based in the Catkin Building on the Alder Hey campus but not in the main hospital building. We also offer clinics across a variety of community settings.

Time / Date Details

When is it on

Mon-Fri 9am-5pm

Other Details

Availability

Referral required

Yes

Referral Details

Professionals from either health or education can refer to the service for assessment; these can include your GP, health visitor, school SENCO or school nurse. Part of the assessment is collecting information from professionals involved with your child. This means part of the referral proforma requests your consent to contact them prior to seeing you in clinic.